Miss Whittaker, a prominent club woman of Savannah, Ga., tells how she was entirely cured of ovarian troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a Uterine Tonic and Regulator. I suffered for four years with irregularities and Uterine troubles. No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss EASY WHITTAKER, 604 39th St., W. Savannah, Ga. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women prove beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

and uneven. Yet they come on fast—fast. Tell me, could we get back to the Continental works?

"Tis impossible now. They are between us and them. Gladden Hall is the nearest refuge."

"Are you certain?"

"Yes, mademoiselle."

"Listen," she confessed then. "I have deceived you. I made you take me past the Continental line because—because you yourself cannot go there. You must not go there. 'Tis not only the British who would seize you now. Ah, do you not understand? You have been denounced. 'Tis known that you are the same who, they think, would have misled the congress."

"Informed against?" he said. "Again?"

"Oh, what a ghastly thing for you to say to me! 'Twas Jarrat—Jarrat. Row ashore and fly."

"Where?"

"Anywhere, anywhere," she cried wildly. "Only so it be to safety! Haste! They gain on us!"

"If we land they are certain to take us. You cannot go afoot as fast as they."

"I shall not go. You shall leave me there. Row! Row!"

"And why should you care for my life?"

"Ah, will you stay when my heart is breaking? There is no time to talk now. What is anything they may do beside your life? I beseech you—I command you to run in. I never intended you to take me farther."

"You would be safe if we could reach Gladden Hall," he said. Then he stood up and threw off his coat.

Her tears came at this. "There is no one at the hall to protect," she wept. "Not a slave to beat them back. Not a weapon. Tarleton sacked it. Ah, you do not believe me because I deceived you before! But this is the truth—I swear it is the truth!"

He made no answer, but set the boat's bow straight up the stream and rowed as she had never seen a man row before. She felt the timbers shiver and creak, heard the deep intake of his breath and saw the splendid play of the arm muscles beneath his shirt sleeve. Then, entering, ever more insistent, came the creak of the pursuing craft.

The moonlight fell whitely on the shore they skirted. Two miles—three miles—past the shallows of King's creek and Corbin's point. Every tongue of land, every wedge of forest, how well she knew them! But how slowly they fell behind! There was no longer danger of arousing the Continental pickets, and the pursuers' voices came clearly, gibing at the error of their prisoner which had carried him past the line of safety and made his taking certain. Once Anne heard the officer who led five sharp command to put down a gun.

A scant 200 yards was all there was between the two boats when Armand sprang upon the wharf of Gladden Hall. "Leave me," she begged faintly, "and save yourself! You have yet time."

"Give me your hand!" he commanded peremptorily. He took it and led her, running, up the sloping lawn.

Its unkempt forlornness was softened by the kindly moonlight, and not until they reached the front of the house did its gray desolation become all at once apparent. The panes in the windows were broken, the white pillars battered, the front door swinging, the yard unsightly with rubbish.

"'Tis deserted!" Despair was in his tone.

"I told you that."

"Are there no horses?"

"The barns are burned. Leave me, leave me and go!"

A DELIGHTFUL TRIP

Indiana Allied Editorial Association Will Make Tour of Canada.

THE LISTS ARE CLOSING

Membership of Party Limited to Two Hundred and Time For Entry Is Growing Short.

Canadian Government Promises the Editors of Indiana the Outing of Their Lives.

Indianapolis, May 31.—All arrangements for the Canadian tour of the Indiana Allied Editorial Association, starting July 22, have been completed, and the list of those who will take part in this interesting trip is rapidly closing.

This list is limited to 200 on account of restricted hotel facilities which will be met with at certain points on the itinerary, and already more than 150 have entered the prospective party. This party will rendezvous at Chicago, July 22, each person providing transportation to that point. From there the members of the party will be guests of the Canadian government, transportation charges ceasing until the return to Chicago two weeks later. It has been arranged that $45 will cover the necessary expenses of the trip, including sleeping-car privileges. Of this amount the first installment of $20 must be paid to the committee not later than June 20; the second installment of $25 being due on or before July 11.

This trip has been arranged through the courtesy of the Canadian government, and it is assured that the entertainment and comfort of the party on route will be conducted on a scale never before attempted on a similar tour in this country. On no account will the date of departure be postponed, and those who are contemplating availing themselves of this opportunity should communicate with the committee at once, as the lists promise to be soon closed. After June 11 the committee will not be able to guarantee a place in the party.

MAIL MEN AT TERRE HAUTE

Indiana Association Holding Sixth Annual Convention.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 31.—The sixth annual convention of the Indiana Letter Carriers' association is in session here with about fifty delegates present. The convention was called to order by George W. Rowe of Elkhart, vice president for Indiana of the national organization. Mayor Steeg delivered the address of welcome, to which President A. K. Mail of Fort Wayne responded. President Mail and Secretary E. A. Roberts of Muncie made their reports, the latter's showing twenty-four branches with a total membership of 250. There are a few cities with carriers not in the association, and they are expected to join. The reports of Treasurer Joseph Herman of Logansport showed all expenses paid and $100 in the treasury. The ladies' auxiliary of the Terre Haute branch took the visiting women on a steamboat outing up the Wabash yesterday afternoon. A banquet was served last night.

On the base are the figures, "1861-1865," while on the back of the monument it reads: "In perpetual remembrance, erected by Fitzhugh Lee Chapter, U. D. C., 1904."

Senator Dausman's Home Robbed.

Goshen, Ind., May 31.—The residence of E. A. Dausman, state senator and a candidate for representative, was robbed while Mr. Dausman and family were absent. A gold watch and other jewelry, besides a small sum of money, was taken. Mr. Dausman's return frightened the robbers, who escaped by a rear door.

INDIANA DELEGATES

To the Chicago Convention Will Arrange Preliminaries Tomorrow.

Indianapolis, May 31.—Chairman James P. Goodrich has issued a call to the Indiana delegates to the Republican national convention at Chicago to meet here tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to make arrangements for the headquarters and trip to Chicago. He explained pointedly to your correspondent that the meeting is not for the purpose of organizing the delegation. That detail will be attended to when the delegates reach Chicago. It has always been customary for the delegates to meet here a short time before the convention to make arrangements for the trip and to pro-rate the expenses for the headquarters. It is understood that each of the thirty delegates will be assessed $100 as a starter. This does not include the expenses the delegates will be put to for their own rooms. There have been rumors that some of the delegates will try to get a statement from Senator Fairbanks as to whether or not he will accept the nomination for vice president, but his friends stated today that they do not believe that any effort will be made to embarrass him.

Politicians are interested now in observing the effect of Grover Cleveland's latest announcement that he favors the nomination of Judge Alton B. Parker. A few weeks ago when he came out for Parker hundreds of Indiana Democrats flocked to the support of Hearst, although at heart they were against him. Letters were received from all parts of the state by Hearst's managers denouncing Cleveland and declaring against Parker because Cleveland was for him. The Indiana delegation is now instructed for Parker, so the kicks of the masses because of Cleveland's statement won't do much good, but it will be just as interesting to note the result. A peculiar feature of the situation was that during the state convention a number of very strong gold Democrats who are for Cleveland helped the Hearst forces because they were against Taggart. After Hearst was defeated they flocked back to Cleveland and made an effort to start a new boom for him. Now comes their chief with an endorsement of the candidate Taggart stands for, but it is very doubtful whether or not the Cleveland men will let up on Taggart. The latter and his associates seem more certain than ever that Parker will be the nominee.

A For-night Ago Robert McLane Had Married Young Society Woman—Bride Prostrated.

Baltimore, May 31.—Mayor Robert M. McLane of this city shot and killed himself at his home yesterday afternoon in his bedroom at his residence. His bride of less than two weeks was at the time of the tragedy asleep in an adjoining room, and was awakened by the discharge of the revolver, which Mr. McLane evidently fired while standing before the mirror of the dressing case.

The bullet entered the right temple and, crashing through the head, escaped in the rear of the left ear. Mrs. McLane and other members of the household rushed to the mayor's assistance, but he did not regain consciousness after he fell to the floor, and expired within an hour.

No cause can be assigned for the act by the members of Mr. McLane's family. Since the fire of last February he has been kept assiduously at work administering the affairs of the city, besides endeavoring to direct the rehabilitation and rebuilding of the burned district. This, together with criticisms by his political opponents, is thought to have caused temporary alteration of mind.

Mayor McLane was elected as a Democrat to the office of chief magistrate of the municipality in May of last year for a term of four years. Under the city charter he will be succeeded by E. Clay Timmons, Republican, president of the second branch of the city council, to serve out the unexpired term. The second branch of the council, which is Republican, will select a president, not necessarily a member of the present body, to preside over its deliberations.

Mayor McLane was thirty-six years of age, the youngest chief executive Baltimore ever had. He was the son of James L. McLane, president of the First National bank, and nephew of Robert M. McLane, former governor of Maryland and United States minister to France during President Cleveland's first administration. Previous to his election as mayor he had for four years filled the office of state's attorney, in which he had distinguished himself by a zealous and intelligent discharge of his duties. During his brief administration of the may-orality office he had brought upon himself the antagonism of the regular Democratic organization by the appointment of independent members of the party. Recently there has been marked opposition to him among Democratic members of the city council in matters relating to the rebuilding of Baltimore, and this is ascribed by many as a contributory cause of suicide.

Mayor McLane was married two weeks ago to Mrs. Mary Van Bibber, a well-known and popular society leader of Baltimore, and the newly made bride is prostrated by the terrible tragedy.

The dead mayor was very popular among the people generally, irrespective of party, and the whole community has been profoundly shocked by his tragic end.

Beaver Valley's Tribute.

Beaver, Pa., May 31.—During the hours of the funeral of Senator Quay today the Beaver valley was as quiet as a tomb. Not a wheel turned in the mills and factories, nor a store or a shop was open. Many places of business are draped in black. The street-cars of the Beaver Valley Traction company, who operate six lines, are draped, and as the cars pass through Beaver they run slowly and not a gong is sounded. During the funeral the cars were stopped and left standing in the street.

"I sleep well enough at night, And the blindest appetite Ever mortal man possessed."

Riley's farmer is the very picture of a man advanced in years, yet in the enjoyment of perfect health. A good appetite, good digestion and sound sleep, are the chief factors in a vigorous old age.

Life is sustained by food, when it is properly digested and assimilated. When digestion fails, there is a loss of nutrition which soon shows itself in physical weakness, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the body in the only way possible,—by enabling the assimilation of the nutrition extracted from food.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since."

writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicine."

The memorial address by president Roosevelt Monday at Gettysburg was indeed a notable address and will be read with much interest throughout the country.

JUDGE TRUESDALE, of Alexander, who was the democratic nominee for congress in the Eighth district two years ago, predicts that Roosevelt will carry Indiana by an overwhelming majority if Judge Parker is nominated for president by the democrats. He says the masses of laboring men are against Parker. He says they know Parker, the man Wall street has picked out for the democrats, is a plutocrat and simply will not vote for him. He further says that President Roosevelt made himself very popular with laboring men by the way he took hold of the anthracite coal strike.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

The Day Appropriately Observed Here.

Memorial day was fittingly observed in Seymour. An unusually large number of citizens joined the old soldiers and the Woman's Relief Corps in the observance of the day. The crowd at the opera house was sufficient to fill nearly every seat. The rain interfered to a certain extent but the program was carried out as announced. At 1:30 p. m. the members of the Grand Army and old soldiers generally, to the number of about 100, formed in line in front of their hall in the Masonic Temple, and marched south to Bruce street and back to the opera house, led by the b. n. l. The drill team of the Modern Woodmen marched with them. At the opera house Jacob Scharr was master of ceremonies.

After two pieces by the band a quartette consisting of Mrs. W. G. Reynolds, Mrs. G. L. Hancock, E. L. Hancock and W. G. Gelle, sang a beautiful selection which was followed by prayer by Rev. Harley Jackson. The quartette sang again when C. H. Rutherford was introduced and recited very creditably Ingersoll's famous address delivered at Indianapolis several years ago.

Hon. John R. Rebeck, of Versailles, was then introduced as the principal speaker of the afternoon. He spoke first of what Decoration Day commemorates and the lessons its observance should teach to the rising generation. The next generation, he said, would be just what this one made it. He spoke of the sacrifice of the soldier for his country and sharply rebuked those who criticize our pension system. He alluded to the triumphs of the Union army and eulogized the bravery and patriotism of the volunteer soldier of the United States. He spoke for about an hour and was given very close attention by the large audience.

He was followed by Hon. A. N. Menden, of this city, who spoke for about fifteen minutes, paying a beautiful, just, and eloquent tribute to the private soldier. He made a decided hit with the old soldier and everyone else who heard him. His speech was followed by a storm of applause.

At the conclusion of the program the old soldiers formed in line and marched to the cemetery where they decorated with beautiful flowers the graves of their deceased comrades.

The death of Senator Mathew Stanley Quay removes one of the country's most prominent and potent public men. For years he was a great force in the politics of his own state and in the nation. In the senate he occupied a high place.

Let This be a Lesson For You.

Profit by it, while there is yet time, and do not longer deceive yourself. Take the test yourself, place a card or your hand over one eye and then with the other looking at some object which is clearly defined, in good light, at least fifteen feet away, compare the vision of both eyes. If you find one weaker than the other, if you do not see as clearly with one eye as you do the other, you should immediately have this attended to. Eyes of this kind continue to grow worse and worse and very frequently they are diagnosed as blind. Now what would be the result, if something happened to the seeing eye in such a case? Don't you see what desperate chances you are taking daily? WE POSITIVELY KNOW HOW to develop vision in such eyes and will do so, on an absolutely guarantee. No vision no pay. Of course there are some cases, which are past the helping point, however we shall discover that upon making the first Examination, which we make free.

The Wandering Boy.

The boy that was found at Columbus two or three days ago and excited the owners' pity there by a story of his travels from Illinois to his endeavor to get back to Jackson county in search of friends proved to be Harry White, aged 10, of this city. He gave his name as "Willie Clay" at Columbus. Marshal Prewitt went to Columbus and brought him back Monday and restored him to his mother, who lives at the corner of Seventh and Ewing.

Tuesday morning Prewitt took the boy, accompanied by his mother, to Brownstown where he will be taken before Judge Buskirk who may send him to the Reform school.

Decoration at Brownstown.

Decoration day was appropriately observed at Brownstown. The principal address was made by J. H. Matlock, of this city, though he had been given no previous notice that he would be expected to speak.

Soldiers graves in Chestnut Ridge graveyard were decorated by a committee sent out from Seymour.

DANIEL E. STORMS
Excellent Official Record Made by Efficient Secretary of State.

Daniel E. Storms, who has the marked distinction of having been twice nominated by acclamation for the office of secretary of state, was born on a Tippecanoe county farm, near Stockwell, on January 30, 1866. His education was secured through the common schools, Purdue University and Michigan University, he graduating from the law department of the latter with the degree of LL.B. in 1892. He then became a successful practitioner and was Tippecanoe's county attorney at the date of his first election to the office for which he has been renominated. His family consists of wife, daughter and son.

During that portion of his term already completed the office has made an exceptionally attractive record, the fees collected for the benefit of the state and turned into the treasury being considerably in excess of those for any previous period of similar length. Appended are record facts which serve to illustrate the growth in importance of the Secretary of State's office within the past few years: For the fiscal term (two years) ending Oct. 31, 1898, total collections by the office were $54,326.30; for the term ending Oct. 31, 1900, $137,154.85; for the term ending Oct. 31, 1902, $187,176.31. During the first fiscal eighteen months of Mr. Storms' administration the collections have amounted to $186,323.56, practically equalling in eighteen months the total for the two years preceding. In other words, all that is to be collected from May 1, 1904, to October 31, 1904, will be a clear gain to the state over the amount of the previous two years, and those two the best the office had ever had. These figures serve not only to illustrate the growing importance of the office, but also to emphasize the prosperous development of the state in its mining, commercial, industrial and financial richness. To the steady reduction of the debt left as a legacy by the last Democratic administration, the Secretary of State's office has contributed an increasing share and deserves continuously to be administered by representatives of that party whose purpose is to accomplish the greatest good for the greatest number.

AGAIN IN SESSION
Illinois Republican Convention Seeks to Break Deadlock.

Springfield, Ill., May 31.—The Republican state convention, after a recess of eleven days, today at 2 o'clock reconvened to resume balloting for a candidate for governor. The previous session lasted more than a week and fifty-eight futile ballots were taken, leaving the seven aspirants for nomination about where they stood at the first ballot. All the aspirants for nomination are present. It is the prevailing opinion that no nomination will be made before Wednesday. Many believe, however, that the deadlock will not be broken before Friday. There is much talk in favor of a proposal which was voted down before the recess was taken, to suspend the balloting for governor and to nominate the remainder of the ticket, providing the deadlock is not broken today.

About the only story about today to which any credence whatever is given is that Yates and Lowden have agreed to throw their delegates to a third man. It is said that the third man has not yet been chosen. It is declared to be a part of the compact that Yates is to go to the United States senate in 1907 and that Lowden is to be made governor four years hence. All knowledge of such a combination, however, is denied by the Yates and Lowden managers.

Health Officers Speak.

The following communications relating to the smallpox situation at Free town were handed to the REPUBLICAN for publication.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

Owing to the fact that I was called to Freetown Sunday, May 15, where I found a number of cases of smallpox, which I diagnosed as such and established quarantine, whereupon some of the local physicians took issue with me, declaring that I was mistaken in my diagnosis, causing almost a general "kick" against my action as county health officer. Some of these critics gave out statements to newspapers for publication, which did me and the interests of the public safety an injustice. I herewith submit the following letter from Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, fully approving my diagnosis and work as health officer.

Respectfully,
DR. D. J. CUMMINGS,
County health officer.

DR. HURTY'S LETTER.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 19, '04.

DR. D. J. CUMMINGS,
Ewing, Ind.

DEAR DOCTOR—You are certainly right in your diagnosis that the eruptive disease at Freetown is smallpox. No one knows better how to handle this than yourself. I had a letter from Freetown expressing the belief that the disease was not smallpox. I answered it telling the person that if you said it was smallpox, then it was smallpox, for there was no better diagnostician to be found. I told him further that you were county health officer and your diagnosis was the legal one and would be enforced in the court. It goes without showing that I recommended vaccination and made plain the fact that those who would not vaccinate would sooner or later have the disease.

Very truly yours,
J. N. HURTY,
Sec'y state board of health.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick, or, unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, remember the name, Swamp Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

WARSHIPS ARRIVE

Uncle Sam's Big Guns Frowning at the Gates of Tangier.

Tangier, Morocco, May 31.—The United States cruiser Brooklyn, flying the flag of Rear Admiral Chadwick, has arrived here. Other vessels of the United States squadron are following. The authorities here consider that the position of the American, Ion Perdicaris, and his stepson, Cromwell Varley, a British subject, who were kidnapped by bandits headed by Raisuli, is now more serious than before.

Rear Admiral Chadwick, accompanied by an aide, the United States consul general and two marines, visited M. Torres, the representative of the sultan at Tangier. The interview lasted ten minutes, after which M. Torres returned the visit at the United States consulate, the Brooklyn firing a salute in his honor.

M. Torres has informed the American and the British representatives that he cannot grant Raisuli's terms. A special courier, it is reported, has been sent to the sultan conveying the American view.

Reports Without Foundation. St. Petersburg, May 31.—Rear Admiral Prince Ouktomsky, who it was reported had been hanged for treason at Port Arthur, is really now in St. Petersburg. He was recalled suffering from nervous strain. The reports connecting Prince Ouktomsky with treason are without foundation.

Will Probe Bedford Mystery.

Bedford, Ind., May 31.—The special grand jury called to take evidence looking to the reopening of the investigation of the mystery surrounding the murder of Miss Sarah Schaefer convened today and was instructed in its duties by Judge Wilson. The members of the body are: Jason Fountain, Charles Watson, Paris Ketcham, Jesse Stephenson, W. B. Hunter and John Woody. The jury is composed of some of the best citizens of Lawrence county.

Rain Didn't Stop Speech.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 31.—As President Roosevelt rose to speak at the Memorial day exercises here yesterday afternoon, a downpour of rain began and continued throughout the time he addressed the great assembly. He was accorded an enthusiastic reception notwithstanding the rain, and the crowd of 10,000 people in the cemetery remained to hear the address despite the thorough drenching it received.

An Open Letter.

From the Capin, S. C., News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by C. W. Milhouse.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband Pa. "At times she was unable to move a leg, while at all times walking is painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by C. W. Milhouse.

TROUBLE IN CAMP

Internal Dissensions Among Russian Leaders Cropping Out of the War.

EMPEROR IS DISGUSTED

Czar Would Discharge Both Kuropatkin and Alexieff if He Didn't Fear the Public.

Better Elements Desire to Make Peace but No One Dare Suggest It to Czar.

Tokio, May 31.—The attack on Port Arthur is expected to begin about June 15. Correspondents will leave here June 10 in time to see the capture, probably about June 20.

London, May 31.—The report of discord in the interview between General Kuropatkin and Viceroy Alexieff at Mukden and of the southern movement of the Russian vanguard below Wafengtien have given rise to rumors that General Kuropatkin has yielded to the wishes of the Alexieff party and is attempting to relieve Port Arthur. Among sober papers here, however, the idea that General Kuropatkin would venture on such a dangerous and hopeless movement is not taken seriously.

According to correspondents at Japanese headquarters up to May 29 nothing important had developed beyond outpost encounters. Japanese troops are largely engaged in building roads and bridges. One correspondent says that General Kuroki gave a luncheon to foreign military attaches to celebrate the victory on the Yalu, while almost simultaneously the Japanese first army was informed of the Kin Chou victory. The same correspondent indicates the reason for delay in the operations. He says that the force that landed at Takushen appears to have struck the fringe of the rainy season. The downpour has been very heavy.

General Kuropatkin, a St. Petersburg correspondent says, is fighting two enemies, one at home, the other in Manchuria. While his military reputation is undergoing a terrible ordeal, he is also accused of failure as minister of war to make proper preparations for war. The emperor is alleged to be so dissatisfied that he would dismiss both Alexieff and Kuropatkin were it not that he fears the effect on public opinion. The general impression among the highest classes is that the fall of Port Arthur ought to connote the end of the war, and that if Japan succeeds in this aim Russia's best interest would be to make peace, but nobody, the correspondent avers, has the moral courage to make such a suggestion to the emperor.

The correspondent also asserts that an agreement is drawn whereby Germany promises armed support to Russia if necessary to prevent England and the United States from attempting to submit the far Eastern question to an international congress, and declares that the recent relaxation of anti-Jewish laws by Russia is the outcome of the desire of the minister of the interior to conciliate American opinion.

THEY CAN'T BELIEVE IT

Russians Hate to Think Cossacks Were Defeated.

Tokio, May 31.—A detachment of Japanese troops attacked and defeated 2,000 Cossacks at Ai Yang Pien Men, northeast of Feng Wang Cheng. The engagement lasted an hour. The Japanese lost four men killed and twenty-eight wounded. The Russian casualties are not known. General Kuroki reports a number of outpost affairs and the capture of eight Russian scouts.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—The reported defeat of Cossacks at Ai Yang Pien Men was the only news and almost the only topic of conversation in St. Petersburg last night and today. No official dispatches were given out, but officers at military headquarters were reluctant to accept the Japanese dispatches. They think it possible that the Japanese met General Mischenko's command, which has recently been raiding in Korea. It is formed of comparatively raw recruits, though now somewhat hardened by three months' campaigning. It is conceivable that they might have been defeated, but not Rennekamp's force patrolling the Ai Yang region, who are veterans of that old command who accompanied him on the famous ride through Manchuria. These men are esteemed here as the hardest riders and the most reckless fighters in the trans-Baikal army. Any disaster to them would have a greater sentimental effect than the most serious reverse at Kin Chou.

Cruiser Newark Leaves Colon.

Colon, May 31.—The United States cruiser Newark has sailed for Guantanamo. Only the United States cruiser Montgomery and the supply ship Glacier are now in isthmian waters.

Skeletons of Children Found.

Tagil, Province of Perm, Russia, May 31.—The local police have discovered hundreds of skeletons of children in the loft of the premises occupied by an old midwife.
